

A Hunkar Technologies Company

Mark II Printer/Applicator

Electric and Pneumatic Models

Hunkar, founded in 1962 has the most diverse automated label product line in the industry today.

Introducing our new Mark II Print and Apply applicator, formerly known as the Brute 9800. The Mark II has both a pneumatic and all electric option. This unit combines the flexibility of thermal transfer print with an assortment of label application options.

The Mark II is available in several configurations: Tamp, Tilt-On and Vacuum Blow (Pneumatic Only).

Rugged and Built to Last

Constructed of T60/61 with Stainless Steel Fasteners

Standard Features

Choose your orientation: (Right or Left Hand)

Choose your product sensor: (Reflective or Diffused)

Choose your mount positions: (Top or Side)

Choose Print Engine: (Zebra or SATO)

Optional Features

T-Base or H-Base Stands, with optional locking casters

Custom Stands available

Light stack option is used to signify labels are running correctly,

Web Break Sensor Option detects if a liner has broken.

Low Label sensor detects when there are a limited number of labels left on roll.

Hunkar Packaging, Inc.
1320 Russell Street
Covington, Kentucky 41011
859.431.0060

Email: packinfo@hunkar.com Website: www.hunkarpack.com